CG Hospitality forays in the Middle East with Taj Jumeirah Lake Towers, Dubai

CG Hospitality signed an agreement with Tata Group's hospitality arm, Indian Hotels Company Limited (IHCL), to manage its luxury hotel, Taj Jumeirah Lake Towers in Dubai, United Arab Emirates. The soon-to-be-launched hospitality address will be CG Hospitality's first hotel in the region, with many more luxury properties to follow.

CG Hospitality, the fast-growing hotel and travel wing of CG Corp Global, is a major shareholder in Taj Jumeirah Lake Towers, Dubai. CG Corp Global, a multi-national conglomerate of 174 companies and 76 brands across the world is Nepal's first and only billion-dollar corporation listed by Forbes.

CG Hospitality began its journey partnering with Tata Group 20 years ago through their hospitality arm IHCL which owns the Taj Brand. This partnership has evolved over the years and CG Hospitality owns some of the most iconic assets globally with Taj Brands such as Taj Samudra, Sri Lanka, Taj Exotica Resort & Spa and Taj Coral Reef Resort & Spa in the Maldives, Taj Safari Lodges, India, Vivanta Kathmandu and Meghauli Serai, A Taj Safari.

Rahul Chaudhary joined the already successful CG Corp Global in 2006 as Managing Director. Over the past thirteen years, the group's portfolio has bloomed to its current monolithic growth by 4,300 per cent, with footprints in 20 countries. Heading the fast-growing hotel and travel wing, CG Hospitality, he manages and owns a portfolio of 130 hotels, 94 in operation, with the remainder expected to open within two years.

With the upcoming launch of Taj Jumeirah Lake Towers in Dubai, Rahul Chaudhary; whilst reviving their long-standing partnership with IHCL will bring CG Hospitality's distinguishing luxury and ethical benchmarks to the UAE.

JLT's first luxury hotel, Taj Jumeirah Lakes Towers brings a timeless combination of century-old legacy and luxury seamlessly woven together with contemporary sensibilities and quintessential Indian heritage. The iconic landmark, with 200 contemporary rooms and suites is conveniently located 30 minutes from Dubai International Airport and a mere five-minutes away from the metro station. Offering a treat to the senses, guest at the hotel can dine at six distinct dining venues, with three restaurants launching in Q2 of 2020 and experience a satisfying mix of masterfully curated signature dining and distinctive entertainment.

CG Hospitality owns and operates 130 hotels and resorts with 6507 keys in 11 countries and 87 destinations. Focused on "Vision 2022", its portfolio is expected to grow to over 200 hotels globally. CG Hospitality owns the global management company, CG Hotels and Resorts, which manages and owns a range of mid-scale to luxury hotels through its own brands namely "The Zinc" as well as "The Fern", both through JV Company's Concept Hospitality.
